SIGHTSEEING

- 1 Livonian Order Castle Ruins, Liepājas iela 9

The construction of a castle-like castle began in the 13th century. The new manor complex was built at the turn of the 18th to 19th century. The owners of the castle - the Ficks family - moved into the new manor house, and the manor servants were housed in the old castle. A windmill and distillery were built by the pond, as well as farm outbuildings near the manor house. After the agrarian reform, a gymnasium (school) was located in the manor house. The Aizpute Local History museum currently has quarters there, as well as a winery.

- 3 Church hill and Aizpute St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Liepājas iela 3, ☎ +371 29401099

Until the 13th century, the church hill was a hillfort for the Curonians, the ancient tribe in Latvia, and the Beida castle of the ancient Curonians was located on it. When German crusaders invaded the hillfort, St. John's church was built in the place of the castle in the 13th century, and it is currently one of the oldest buildings in Courland (Latvian: Kurzeme). In 1295, Aizpute became the capital of the Courland Bishopric and its monastery hosted the Domkapitel. The church has an organ built by the German company "Sauer" in 1904 and has been preserved the tombstone of the last Courland bishop H. Bazedov.

- 4 Historical town
Aizpute is one of the oldest towns in Latvia. It is situated on the right bank of the river Tebra. The first records of the town buildings can be found from the 14th century. The oldest part of the town was located in the territory surrounded by Atmodas, Jāņa, and Katoli streets, but later it was expanded towards Jelgavas, Kalvenes, and Kuldīgas streets.

- 5 Manor Pub - Lapka Hemp
Liepājas iela 20, ☎ +371 26546561

The building was built in the middle of the 19th century, and to the present has remained almost without changes. The building was used as a grain store and Aizpute Parish Board. During the Soviet era, the building housed the garages of the consumer association and the purchase point for agricultural products. Currently, the castle pub building serves as a venue for events.

- 6 Centre of workshops and residences "SERDE"
Atmodas iela 9, ☎ +371 29817180

A historical complex of buildings with a creative atmosphere offers to enjoy various cultural tourism offers - art and cultural events (open in summer).

- 7 Synagogues (Aizpute House of Culture), Atmodas iela 16

The first Jewish community in Kurzeme was established in Aizpute. The synagogue in Aizpute is the oldest in Kurzeme and was built in 1751. The Little Synagogue was built next to it in 1875. In 1941, all the Jews living in Aizpute were gathered in synagogues, from where they were taken to the Kalvene road and killed in the forest. After the Second World War, both buildings were combined and since 1955 have been used as the city's House of Culture.

- 10 Underberg Cardboard Factory Building (factory "Kurzemes atslēga"), Kalvenes iela 27, ☎ +371 28633808

This red brick house is a typical example of late 19th century manufacturing building with extensively decorated architectural design of the main facade. The factory was opened in 1890 for the production of pharmacy boxes, small bags and labels. During World War II, the factory was used by the German army to fix - arms. Since 1960, the industrial complex of the Aizpute district operates as metal fittings factory "Kurzemes atslēga". The decor of the clubrooms of "Kurzemes atslēga" is also spectacular and worth seeing. The production process for groups available on working days by applying in advance.

- 11 Baptist Church, Kuldīgas iela 17

Church was built in accordance with the project of Alexander Schmaeling and consecrated at Christmas of 1939. The beginning, the pastor's family lived in the church's apartment, which is built into the second floor of the building. In this house, in the family of the Baptist congregation's pastor Arvids Vasks, was born and lived out his childhood a notable composer Pēteris Vasks.
